

Wednesday 10th December

Alison Utting Miss Plymley recollects

A Shropshire woman invites you to share her memories of a busy and fascinating life in Georgian and Regency Britain. Join Katherine Plymley for tea in 1816 as she chats about her experiences.

From her home in rural Shropshire to Anglesey, Bath and London, Katherine kept journals of her experiences. Through her words witness the first steam engine, the excitement of Bath, and the fight to abolish slavery, as well as the delights of her family and village life. Meet the Ladies of Llangollen, William Wilberforce, Olaudah Equiano, Thomas Telford, and many others.

Adapted from Katherine's journals with kind permission of the Corbett family.